CRAFT COCKTAILS

“Craft cocktails” are cocktails where every element is handmade or tailor made specifically to the drink. You will see drinks served in custom glassware, poured over custom ice cubes, mixed with home-made syrups and finished with a dash of small-batch bitters. You might see traditional spirits used along with unexpected barrel-aged liquors that are prepared by bartenders who mix these drinks with other unusual combinations. Simple or complex, the results are cocktails that are made with a lot more care than your usual mixed drinks and the same deliver a better and much more satisfying experience.

The process of making craft cocktails is a lot like that of the artisan food movement, focusing on flavour & high quality ingredients.
